LONDON STOCK MARKET

INACTIVE AND NARROW.

FOREIGN BOURSES WERE LOWER.

Transactions in New York Consisted of Purchases to Even Up Accounts.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Nov. 2.—The London market was inactive and narrow, but American stocks advanced on the previous night's New York prices, but later sagged off considerably with our prices and closed heavy.

The general market was heavy, but outside local nothing on the day. Foreign bourses were fractionally lower, with little business doing. Exchange and discount rates were unchanged, but a discount in the European centers. It may be said that markets generally, so far as American stocks were concerned, were awaiting the result of the presidential election.

In the local market the transactions on the day consisted almost entirely of sales and purchases to even up accounts in the election. Early in the day money developed a harder tendency, and bankers called in loans. These were immediately rearranged at a higher money rate, and the substitution of better collateral and a wider margin. In the circumstances it was to be expected that the stock market would feel the effect, and it was shown in the dull tone of the trading. The strength displayed was upon the whole remarkable and prominent bankers felt so confident on the political outlook that there were the only precautionary measures taken over the election. There was some liquidation in Pennsylvania and the high-grade stocks on the attitude of the market in way that would affect the most delicate, had there been any degree.

A strong undertone was displayed in all departments and the fluctuations in money had a merely passing effect. Northern Pacific and Sugar were both advanced on the short interest. Money moved an entire agency at the close.

There was no Chinese news of any serious moment, but it was shown in the fact that the Powers had accepted the principle of the integrity of China. The new British Ministry certainly announced a continuation of the British foreign policy.
